A telegram from Buffalo, dated July 72, says:

The great Fenian pic-nie to-day was-successful. At least 12,000 of the organ-ization and their friends met on the terization and their friends met on the carried at 9, a.m. Some five thousand ladies and civic members with bands of music and banners joined in procession which marched to Chiton forest. The country, All we ask is to have customers which marched to Chiton forest. The country, and satisfy thouselves, before purchasing clowders, we have, and are receiving, all the new styles from market, consisting of entirely with persons going to and from the grounds and the streets were lined with every conceivable private convey-ance that could be pressed into service. Between twenty and twenty-five thousand persons were on the grounds. Most perfect order prevailed. Delegations from Rochester, Dankirk, Lockport, Eric, Medina, Canada and other places were present. The soldier-ly bearing and marching of the military part of the procession called out the admiration of military men who witnessed the evolutions. After a review on the grounds speeches, appropriate to the occasion, were made by Gen. O'Neil, Mr. Mechan, editor of the Irish American, and other prominent gentlemen. Daneing and other festivities closed one of the largest and most orderly demonstrations ever held in Buflalo.
